

CLASS SCHEDULE

SPRING 2025

Elite Youth

for Grade 5 to 10

JAN 11 – APR 26 (16 weeks) | Saturdays 8 AM - 12 PM or 1 PM - 5 PM

Elite Youth empowers students with advanced reading, writing, and discussion skills, fostering confidence and academic excellence. Through the acclaimed Harkness System, akin to Andover's academic culture, students engage in lively debates, enhancing their analytical writing abilities. Teachers guide students towards mastery in discussions and writing, ensuring quality and excellence.

- Read above grade level nonfiction to foster growth
- Rediscover their own Compose well-organized and logical paragraphs
- Expand vocabulary for crafting creative sentences
- Demonstrate coherence and structure in writing

American English

for Grade 3 to 10

JAN 11 - APR 26 (16 weeks) | Saturdays 1 PM - 5 PM

Within a group setting, our American English program is designed for students to surpass their current level using certified American curriculum. Guided by teachers and mentors, students, regardless of their proficiency level, work through coursework using a digital platform. It is the optimal preparation for aspiring Elite Youth.

- Read various fictions and nonfictions
- Master grammar and craft diverse essays
- Learn to articulate and express thoughts effectively
- Cultivate critical thinking skills

Reading & Discussion

for Grade 3 to 8

JAN 11 - APR 26 (16 weeks) | Saturdays 1 PM - 4 PM

In the Elite Reading & Discussion, students will improve reading comprehension, speaking & discussion skills in short and focused sessions before advancing to the Youth Lower class. This course aims to enhance students' vocabulary, reading comprehension, and essay-writing competencies and prepare them to develop their English abilities.

- Develop reading comprehension and writing skills through carefully selected articles
- Engage in active discussions with peers facilitated by the teacher
- Enhance logical thinking and problem-solving skills
- Articulate thoughts and ideas in a more eloquent fashion
- Learn to compose thoughts into organized paragraphs

 Please contact us for tuition information.*