ELITE OPEN SCHOOL

OUR MISSION

Elite Open School builds the complete student, deeply knowledgeable, independently capable, and genuinely prepared for what comes next. Through a classical foundation and advanced, AI-augmented college preparation, we develop students who arrive at the world's most selective universities ready to lead.

INSTITUTIONAL LEGACY & CONTEXT

Elite Open School operates as the fully accredited, degree-granting high school division of the Center for Future Global Leaders (CFGL). Working in close strategic coordination with Elite Educational Institute, EOS leverages a 40-year legacy of unmatched college admissions results. EOS was established to take a proven, rigorous college-prep methodology and engineer it for the future, providing a flexible, highly rigorous digital-first academy for globally ambitious students.

ACCREDITATIONS & AFFILIATIONS

Accreditations: ACS WASC, Cognia

Memberships & Partnerships: Center for Future Global Leaders, World Economic Forum, Minerva Project, National Speech & Debate Association, NACAC, NCAA, University of California A-G, College Board AP Capstone™.

ACCREDITATIONS

MEMBERSHIPS & PARTNERSHIPS

STUDENT BODY & COMMUNITY

Representing 6 Countries and 4 U.S. States

Elite Open School partners with localized Learning Resource Centers (LRCs) to serve college-bound students across 34 global campuses (including the US, Canada, Japan, Korea, Indonesia, and China). Our demographic profile reflects our unique positioning as a premium academic accelerator:

Part-Time Students: Highly ambitious scholars dual-enrolled in local public and private schools who utilize EOS for advanced, rigorous coursework (such as the Minerva Baccalaureate, AP Capstone™, or specialized CTE pathways) that their home districts cannot provide.

Full-Time Students: Globally competitive scholars, elite athletes, esports competitors, and pre-professional performers who require our flexible, hybrid LRC model to accommodate their rigorous training schedules without sacrificing Ivy-League academic standards.
